

The Polish Cultural Council and
The Honorary Consulate of Poland in Pittsburgh cordially invite you to a special concert
of exceptional young artists:

ANIA FILOCHOWSKA, violin
PIOTR FILOCHOWSKI, violin
ALEX EDELMAN, piano

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 2009, 7:00 PM

TRIMONT PLAZA, Mt. Washington
Music by Wieniawski, Karłowicz, Mozart, Paganini & others

Both young artists (Ania is 15-years old and her brother Piotr is 17) are laureates of over 40 national violin competitions in Europe and have performed many times solo and with orchestras.

Ania was invited by Itzhak Perlman to study with the Maestro at the Juilliard School Pre-College program. She has recorded for the new PBS TV series "From the Top: Live from Carnegie Hall." Piotr made his orchestra debut at the age of 11 and has studied also at the Juilliard School of Music and the Professional Children's School in New York. He has participated in the Starling-DeLay Symposium as an "Exceptional Young Artist" at Juilliard, and has performed on National Public Radio's "From the Top," at Princeton University and the Polish Embassy in Washington.

Both artists have received several presidential awards. In February, both performed at the DeLAMAR Mansion, Salon of Arts and Ideas, at the invitation of the Consulate General of Poland in New York.

Polish Cultural Council

Tickets: $20.00 students: $10.00

'Meet the Artists' reception follows.
Seating is very limited.

For reservations and tickets
please call: 412-871-3347
or visit our website:
www.PolishCulturalCouncil.org