The Carnival & Ostatki Tradition

The Carnival in Poland, with its last days called Ostatki, is a time of fun and frivolity. It starts right after Christmas and celebrates life before Lent with dance, great food and drinks.

One of the delicious and symbolic Carnival desserts in Poland, PACZKI, is especially enjoyed on the last Thursday before Lent, and will be served in abundance at our Ostatki event.

Continuing our tradition of Ostatki - Polish Mardi Gras - immerse yourself in the ambiance of the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts, live entertainment and dancing.
